Invite Others to UGMBC!

Have you invited anyone unsaved and/or without a church home to Union Grove lately? Share the great things the Lord is doing in our midst with others and invite them to experience Jesus with us during our corporate worship experiences. I'm in awe of what the Lord is doing in, for, and through our church. If you feel the same way then don't keep it to yourself. Share with others and welcome them to the Grove Zone!

& Easter

Easter 2014!

I'm looking forward to our Easter celebration for 2014. Our Worship Ministry has some incredible things lined up for us. I anticipate an unforgettable experience in God's presence on Easter. I trust the Lord to move mightily and save souls and strengthen saints for His glory.

Speaking of Easter, what does it mean to you? For me, I am thinking of how Jesus died for me. He was crucified on Calvary's cross, shed His blood in order to secure my salvation, and was raised from the grave on the third day. This is what the Bible teaches us and I whole-heartedly believe it.

Jesus paid the price—the whole thing. He drew me to Himself with His loving-kindness. I am saved by His grace through faith and I cannot boast about a thing as it relates to my salvation. I came to Jesus just as I was and repented of my sins. He washed me with His precious blood and saved me from the power and penalty of sin. Every bit of it is a work of God. This is what the Bible teaches us and I whole-heartedly believe it.

Easter reminds me of what God worked out for my salvation.

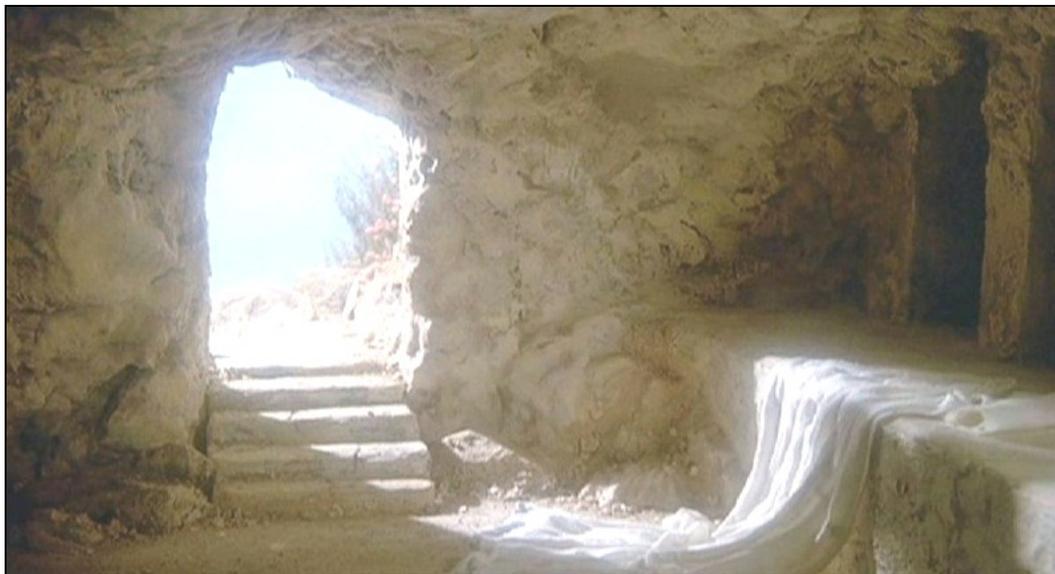

I have kingdom responsibilities. As a member of the Body of Christ I have work to do so that Jesus has a way to express His love in the earth. Everyone who follows Jesus has the same responsibility and it is in our best interest to let Him use us until He returns. Don't get it twisted, y'all. Jesus is coming back just like He said He would. So, work for Him. Let Him use you as a faithful, vibrant member of His Body. He will do exceeding abundantly above all we could ask or think according to His power that works in us. This is what the Bible teaches us and I whole-heartedly believe it!

The Stone is Rolled Away - Christ is Risen

But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for He is risen, as He said."

Matthew 28:1-9, Mark 16:1-8

Luke 24:1-12, John 20:1-10

On Sunday morning, two days after the death and burial of Jesus, some women went very early, as soon as it was light, to the tomb in the garden. One of these women was Mary Magdalene, another was also named Mary, and another was named Salome. They were bringing some more fragrant gums and spices to place in the wrappings upon the body of Jesus. And as they went they said to each other, "Who will roll away for us the great stone at the door of the cave?"

But when they came to the cave, they saw that the seal was broken, the stone was rolled away, and the soldiers who had been on guard were gone. There stood the tomb of Jesus all open! They did not know that before they came to the tomb there had been an earthquake; and that an angel had come down from heaven and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

When the soldiers on guard saw the angel, with his flashing face, and his dazzling garments, they fell to the ground as though they were dead, and as soon as they could rise up, they fled away from the spot in terror; so when the women came there was no man in sight. As soon as Mary Magdalene saw that the tomb was open, without stopping to look into it, she ran quickly to tell the disciples. A moment after she had gone, the other women looked into the tomb, and they saw that the body of Jesus was not there.

But they saw sitting at each end of the tomb a young man, clothed in a long white garment. Their faces shone like angels, and when the women saw them they were filled with fear. One of the angels said to them: "Do not be afraid; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is not here; he is risen, as he said that he would rise from the dead. Come; see the place where the Lord lay; and then go and tell his disciples, and tell Peter too, that Jesus will go before you into Galilee, and you shall see him there".

Then the women went away in mingled joy and fear. They ran in haste to bring this word of the angel to the disciples.

WHO ARE WE?

For the majority of my life, I've always thought that I had no value, no one that really loved me. I had body issues, social issues, you name it, and I probably thought it was me. I tried to do everything that I could think of (worldly) to fit in with friends and family. If I said "yes" to everything asked of me, maybe they would like me. Oh, how wrong I was; it just made it easier to use me.

I had attended church all my life, but I never knew Jesus. After I started attending Union Grove, I started going to Bible Study, Sunday School; getting involved with ministry. I thought what could it hurt; this was my last chance to change my life. This went on for a while until something happened inside. I finally knew that God loved me; no matter what I had done, no matter what I thought about myself, He loved me. My heart began to change, I loved myself. I allowed other people in, not fearing rejection or being used because Jesus loved me.

You may be asking yourself, "what does this have to do with me?" I realized that we are no different. We all go through things, we all have negative thoughts about ourselves and I'm here to tell you that only through a relationship with Jesus, your heart can also change. We were all placed here, Union Grove, to help each other. Colossians 2:2 states: "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ." This is the scripture that God gave me for the foundation of the Women's Ministry; I believe wholeheartedly that if we follow God's Word, we will grow spiritually, IAMU

FOOD DRIVE

Jr SWAT has launched their first Community Service event for 2014.

As we approach Easter Sunday, we are campaigning a FOOD DRIVE to help provide a nice dinner for those who might need a "little extra help".

We will accept canned goods, boxed foods, and other non-perishable foods. Think of what you would like to have on your plate and bring those items to the rear Church Annex, or the trophy case or The Vision Center.

If anyone would like to give monetary donations, we will gladly accept them! We will use the money to purchase grocery store gift cards, so that families can purchase meats and perishable items!

Thank you for your support! Jr SWAT

A Homecoming Becomes the Homecoming in the Growve Zone at “The Place”, Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church, August 3, 2014

Come Home – The Home, Our Home, Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church - to fully realize the witnessing of His Crowning Glory. It is Our Savior, Jesus Christ!

Home...

It is not a fixed residence of a family or household; but it is each one of us - the members, the family, the friends and the neighbors.

It is our Pastor, Assistant Pastor, Elders, Ministers, Deacons, Teachers, Choirs, Ushers, Administration, Bible Study – men and women, Sunday School, Singles Ministry, Prayer Walks, Intercessory Prayer, Girl Power, Grief Support, SWAT & JR SWAT, fellow Christians, Healthcare Ministry, Bus Ministry, Zumba, Man Up, PLACE Ministry, Summer Camp and Golden Achievers. GTAH and others learning in God’s house;

It is the members of a family collectively, hugging each other in fellowship, praising God;

It is one’s family background; it is each of us who have set foot between the walls of Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church; and moved the walls to be a catalyst for a better community and interacting with the world through the technological cloud.

It is our native land of fellow worshippers and of our ancestors through the Holy Spirit left to us in 1887, Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church;

It is an institution for persons needing prayer, care, rest, or refuge; and,

It is where a thing originates or is native or most common through our mission – to draw people to Christ, maximize our potential, and creatively meet the physical and emotional needs of the church and transforming through our vision – to be a global network of learning, loving, and life transforming ministries where hungry worshippers are discovering and walking in their God-given purpose with exceeding great joy.

Come Home to Homecoming...

The homecoming committee members – Elder Tammy Carpenter, Minister Cornelius Thorpe, Deacons Jerome Stephens and Louis Laney, Sisters Annie Abrams, Sharon Broughton, Marion Mathis, Lena Nixon, Janice Scott, Alice Thornton and Marion Thorpe; and Brothers Leroy Frazier and Arthur James – are working hard to make our homecoming special for us, former members, friends, neighbors and guests...and even more pleasing to God. To accomplish the goals for homecoming, “We need each and every member to be an active participant.”

Four of the goals involve new joins, attendance, fellowship, and building a community sports and recreation complex on our land at 1101 South Davis Drive. The specifics of these and the other goals will be highlighted in the immediate future. A special part of the goals will involve regular church services, including special enactments of our past, and the “fellowship-meal-fellowship-meal” to follow our 11:00 a.m. service, where former members, members, guests and neighbors can “eat and mingle and mingle and eat” so everyone can get to better know each other will take place at the Vision Center.

Thanks,

Brother Arthur James

~ Men's Retreat ~

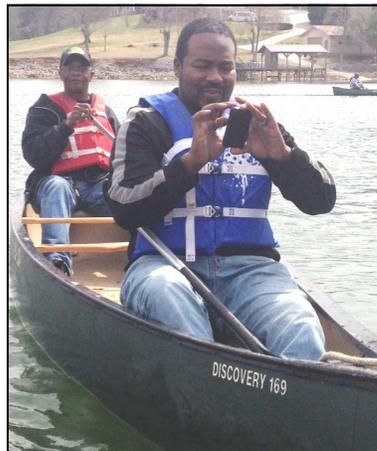

By Bro Jimmy Oglesby

I recently joined in with other brothers from all over the southeastern parts of the U.S. for a weekend of true Christian fellowship at Cedine Ministries Men's Retreat up in the Tennessee mountains. Over the past 4 years of attending, I've found it to be refreshing to just get away and enjoy spiritual cleansing and growth with my fellow brothers in Christ. This year's theme, "Christian Men on the Frontline," really dealt with issues facing men as husbands, spiritual leaders, brothers, and just plain ole men of God.

The retreat allowed for several breakout sessions covering an array of topics dealing with winning the battle as Godly men. In addition to biblical teachings, we managed to get in some canoeing, fishing, horseback riding and archery to name a few. One of the best things I enjoyed the most about the trip was the camaraderie experienced primarily with my brothers from Union Grove. There was great food, fun, and to top it all off, we received an exciting yet challenging word each day from Rev. Dr. Donald M. Reid, Pastor, Alethia Baptist Church in Macon, Georgia.

It's always an experience like none other, and I am looking forward to attending again next year.

Sister Angie Nalls

(By Jackie Powell)

You never get a second chance to make a first impression. That's why the ushers as well as the greeters at Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church are so critical in any church that desires to grow. Ushers and Greeters are expected to greet visitors as well as church members with a "Welcome" when they come into the sanctuary. Ushers and Greeters are usually the first point of contact a member or a newcomer will have on a Sunday morning. We at Union Grove, hope that if they are met with genuine friendliness and a caring offering of assistance, visitors will likely return and likely join the Grove Zone.

Individuals with the gift of welcome and hospitality, such as our member Angie Nalls, are best suited for this service. That caring attitude is why Sister Angie Nalls is featured in this month's newsletter.

Sister Nalls has lived in Warner Robins since 2009. She was blessed with three sons; one in particular, Christopher Nalls, who urged her to relocate from Tuscaloosa, Alabama when she became ill.

After much praying and the encouragement and love from Pastor and First Lady Clarke she decided to join the Grove Zone on February 26, 2012.

This love of people is demonstrated by Sister Nalls not only as a member of the Usher Board and Greeters, but as well as an assistant to a Master Life teacher. She stated to me that she felt when she was on her post she felt like she was holding the "Gates of Heaven" greeting everyone who enters.

LET'S GET OUR FINANCIAL HOUSE IN ORDER PART III

Before we move to STEP 3 in getting our house in order, let me ask a question. Did you get a tax refund this year or are you expecting to get one? What are/did you do with your tax refund? Some people get large refunds and within two weeks can't figure out what happened to the money. A few suggestions if you haven't already disposed of it: (1) Pay off debt. (2) Start your emergency fund. (3) Start your vacation fund. (4) Start/contribute to your retirement account. (5) Start/contribute to your children's/grandchildren's education fund. Too many of us allowed Uncle Sam to use our hard earned money all year interest free. The average refund is $3,120. This amount divided by 12, yields $260.00 per month. What could you do with an extra $260.00 each month? Take action right away to change your withholding so that you get more of your money in your check. Remember, it is better to owe a little or break even than to let the government use a large chunk of your income for free.

STEP 3 – (PRAY) If I didn't mention this before, pray before each step.- CLEANING UP YOUR CREDIT!!!!!!! - NOTE: There is no such thing as cleaning up your credit report. Do not pay someone to do this. The only way to "clean up" your credit is to pay your bills on time.

What did you learn from your credit report? Is all well? If there were accounts you didn't recognize, dispute them. Strange accounts may be the result of financial fraud, or something you just forgot. If there were no surprises, are there any outstanding small balances you can simply pay out from your next paycheck or two? To dispute an entry on your report, just send written notice to the credit reporting agency. Instructions are included in your report. Your creditors will have 30 – 45 days to answer. During this period, the information will be removed from your records. Once your creditor sends in a response and can substantiate the amounts, they will be reapplied to your credit file. If your creditor cannot verify the charges, they are permanently removed from your credit history. I listed a few ways to increase your credit score last month. Let's break down a few of those:

- a. Pay off and close out store credit cards. Even if your store card is a major chain store, the interest rates are usually high, and this type of credit is considered to be bad debt. A simple solution would be to roll this amount over to your major credit card. DO NOT CLOSE OUT MAJOR CREDIT CARDS UNLESS YOU HAVE DUPLICATES, i.e. two Visas, two Master Cards.
- b. Don't deal with finance companies. Again, this type of account is considered bad debt as far as your credit score is concerned regardless of whether you make payments on time. The interest rates will be high and they take forever to pay down.

If you have any questions, contact me by phone, (478) 328-1483 or just drop a note in the Teaching Ministry slot in the mailroom.

See you next month!
Sister Wanda Verrett

The PSA Test

The PSA Test: Prostate-specific antigen, or PSA, is a protein produced by cells of the prostate gland. The PSA test measures the level of PSA in a man's blood. If the test is high, it is one of the tests used to determine if a man may have prostate cancer. However, studies from the National Cancer Institute in 2012 have also shown that prostate cancer could also develop with a low PSA level. The test may also be used to monitor men who have had prostate cancer in the past.

There are other reasons that a man could have a high PSA level, some of these include an enlarged prostate (sometimes-called BPH), or an inflammation of the prostate (sometimes called prostatitis).

When is the best time to have a PSA? Some studies suggest screening at age 50, while other studies recommend earlier screening depending on your family history. The best advice for you is to have this conversation with your doctor. You and your doctor can take into account your medical and family history and determine what is best for you.

Have you had that conversation with your doctor? If not, this is a good day to pick up the phone and make an appointment.
