Thirteen Reasons Why I'm Excited About Pastoring Union Grove

By David Anthony Clarke, Sr.

It's my 13th pastoral anniversary. Whoever woulda thunk?! I'm having a blast serving as the undershepherd of Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church. Here are 13 reasons why.

God speaks to us

I really appreciate how God speaks to Union Grove and then confirms what He says. I encourage you to be a hearer and doer of God's Word.

I have fun serving with other Grove Zone leaders

I thank God for the leaders in place to assist me in making His vision for Union Grove come to pass. It is also encouraging to see how many ministers have been licensed or ordained, we have new trustees, and we're now training men to become deacons to assist in the work. God is good!

I can be myself

I appreciate how the people of God allow me to be me. I hope you feel free to be yourself, too.

Corporate worship is da bomb!

I love it when we worship together whether people are dancing in the aisles or lifting their hands in worship. The spontaneity and the times we really sense God's presence in our midst blesses me beyond words.

Improvement happens

It can be really hard for churches to make improvement happen. We do not have that problem. There are so many signs of improvement and progress in the Grove Zone. We've seen newly acquired properties (bought with cash), renovations (done with cash), new ministries, new website, and improved processes. Did you know we're now on iTunes? Check out the podcasts. Improvement happens at Union Grove and I love it, love it, love it!

There's a little sumthin for errbody

We have much to offer the young and old, married or single, male or female, Black, White, etc. I appreciate going to the Chitlin Festival with our Golden Achievers and Dabbing with our youth. We'll have a praise break after devotion one Sunday and then praise and worship the next. Although no church can be all things to all people, God is equipping us to minister to a diverse population. That's neat, off da chain, da bomb, way cool, dope, and muy bueno.

"And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding." Jeremiah 3:15

We have the best First Lady ever!

My, my, my... To have my wife's support, prayers, and energetic involvement blesses me tremendously. I'm so grateful to have her as my help meet as I shepherd God's people. We're blessed to have her energy and anointing in our church!

We're creatively meeting needs

God uses the people of Union Grove to do ministry that makes a difference in people's lives. We are creatively meeting physical and emotional needs of our church and community. That makes me feel godly proud to be a part of this church. I hope it makes you feel good, too.

We have a good name

A good name is worth more than rubies. That applies to believers individually and corporately. Whenever I hear anyone from near or far speak of our church it is with positive, glowing terms of endearment.

Lives are changing, including my own

I see lives changing in our midst. I bear witness that the Spirit of God is sanctifying His people and He's not leaving me out. I'm glad to say being a part of this ministry is changing my life.

People make things happen to advance God's kingdom

This blesses me BIG TIME! I really appreciate people engaging and serving with a spirit of excellence to make things happen and advance God's kingdom. To all of you who serve in our church-Thank You! Join me in praying to the Lord of the harvest to raise up laborers to work in His vineyard.

Two more years and I'll have the record!

LOL! Of all the pastors Union Grove has had, Bobby Smith holds the record for the longest tenure. He served Union Grove for 14 years. If the Lord says the same and the creek don't rise, I'll soon pass him by...in Jesus' name.

Our future is so bright we oughtta wear shades to church

I'm grateful for where we are and where we're going. Great things are happening and the best is yet to come. The Lord is taking us to a prepared place. I'm so excited about that. You should be, too.

Thank you so much for 13 incredible years, Union Grove. Let's continue to learn, serve, give, and connect and watch God blow our minds. He will do exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think.

OORAH!!!

Congratulations!!!

MERRY CHRISTMAS

It's December and Christmas is almost here. Are you ready? I hope so. We've been working all year to have a stress-free holiday. I thought my Christmas shopping was all done then I remembered I needed to get a couple of exchange gifts for our Primerica gathering on Saturday. Oh well, back to the store one more time. I usually recommend not charging gifts on your credit card. However, there are exceptions: Online shopping, purchase points, and purchase satisfaction perks. If you do charge something, try to immediately transfer the money from your checking account to the credit card bill. If you can't do this, rethink the purchase. This helps prevent credit card statement shock come January. Where possible, I used my PayPal account to help prevent loss of my credit card info. BYW December 18th is free shipping day.

Christmas is not the only thing on our mind this month. It's open season for health insurance. It ends earlier this year. It stated on November 1st and runs through January 31, 2016. Now is the time to sign up for or make changes to your health insurance plans. In order to have coverage on 1 January 2016, you should sign up/make changes by 15 December. After that, coverage begins 15 Jan 2016, 1 Feb 16 or at the latest, 1 Mar 2016.

It is also a good time to review your life insurance policies. Do you have enough, are you paying too much, have your children outgrown your work life insurance age limit. Twenty-six is the age for health insurance, but life insurance is a different matter. Have you updated your beneficiary designation? Do you even remember who you have listed? Do you have a contingent listed just in case?

Start preparing for your taxes. You still have time to make contributions to your IRA. If you are over 50, you can save an extra $1,000. Funds put into a traditional IRA can reduce your tax liability for this year. When was the last time you changed your withholding amounts? A simple change from zero dependents to one or two could mean an extra couple hundred dollars in your pocket to pay down debt, start your retirement account or your short-term savings.

Now is a good time to review you debt load. List all of your debt, especially your credit cards, and check the interest rates. Are there any you would be better off paying out or consolidating? If you have a small balance, it might save you money in the long run to take the money out of your short term savings and pay it off. Then whatever you were paying on that bill, pay back into your fund. Do the math. You might be surprised what you can save.

As always, any questions give me a call. Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year!

“... JUST AS THE SON OF MAN DID NOT COME TO BE SERVED, BUT TO SERVE, AND TO GIVE HIS LIFE AS A RANSOM FOR MANY.”
MATTHEW 20:28 NIV

The Marys

Elder Connie Dinkins

Mary – Mother of Jesus

Mary Magdalene

Mary of Bethany

From different locations, different upbringing, different personalities, different ages: Same Jesus

Mary, Mother of Jesus was a young girl of meager means. Her family was considered in the lower cast of society. Mary was from a small village, a place so insignificant as to lead Nathaniel to say, “Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?” (John 1:46), but out of it, and from the womb of a peasant girl came the greatest Man the world will ever know. We don’t know why God chose Mary, but we know from 1 Corinthians 1:27 “But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty.”

Mary did not have an easy life. She was constantly concerned about her Son. At the wedding in Cana, Mary was finally coming to terms that her time as the Mother of Jesus was coming to an end. Even though her position had changed, she did not turn her back on Him, she was there to the end of His earthly life and beyond.

Mary Magdalene, called “The Magdalene” because of her place of birth, Magdala. It would seem that she was a woman of means, which enabled her to serve the Lord with her substance. Because she was free to follow Jesus, more than likely she had no family obligations. The suggestion that she was a prostitute is unfounded, there is not an iota of evidence to suggest such a bad reputation. What is known about her is that she was possessed by seven demons. The Bible depicts Mary as a pure, though deeply afflicted woman, before she met Jesus. Although we do not know the nature of the demons, whether they afflicted her with illness, insanity, or immorality – we do know that such an outcast woman in first century Israel would have been contemptible.

She too followed Jesus through it all. She was one of the last at the cross and the first at the tomb. She was the first to see Jesus after His resurrection. It could be said that she was the first to spread the Gospel. In some Christian writings she is referred to as “the apostle to the apostles”.

Mary of Bethany, was a friend of Jesus along with her sister Martha and brother Lazarus. Mary often focused all her attention on Jesus, sitting at His feet. Unlike her sister, Martha, Mary chose the better thing over household chores. More than any other individual in the New Testament, Mary was associated with Jesus’ feet. She sat at His feet as a disciple, she fell at His feet in worship, and she anointed His feet with oil. All of which speak to her spiritual character.

Questions and Food for Thought:

1. With Mary, Mother of Jesus, she had to relinquish her child to God, just as Hannah had to give Samuel back to God, how far are you willing to go to fulfill your purpose for God?
2. Jesus’ brothers thought He was insane and didn’t believe he was the Son of God until after the Resurrection, thereby putting Mary in the middle. How would you handle this type of situation?
3. After Mary Magdalene was freed of the seven demons, she devoted the rest of her life to serving Him. Based on your relationship with Jesus and what He has done for you, would you consider anything as being too much? Are you willing to dedicate your life to serving Him?
4. Women were not well received in first century Israel, but that did not deter Mary Magdalene. Have you allowed other people to deter you from what God has called you to do?
5. Mary of Bethany showed that she would forsake all in order to sit at the feet of Jesus. How important is discipleship to you?

“It’s Already Done”

Growing up, both physically and spiritually, we make a lot of mistakes. With those mistakes comes feelings of guilt. As we mature the question becomes: How do I cope with the guilty feelings those mistakes leave behind, especially with our children? We forget that when Jesus went to the cross, God placed on Him all our sins and the guilt and shame that can accompany those sins. With His death we received the gift of forgiveness. Romans 8:1 states, “There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. “You have no reason to feel guilty. God says that you will be whiter than snow, that your sins are as far as the east is from the west. That He alone will blot out your sins for His sake and will never think of them again. If you believe God’s Word and believe in Jesus Christ, how can we remain in bondage to guilt and shame.

8 aspects of forgiveness to remember:

1. Ask for God’s forgiveness
2. God’s forgiveness is available for any and all sin, except blaspheme against the Holy Spirit.
3. Receiving forgiveness begins with confession and repentance.
4. What God does with forgiven sin is a beautiful picture of what Christ death on the cross accomplished. (Isaiah 38:17; Isaiah 44:22; Psalm 103:12; Hebrews 8:12)
5. When God forgives, He restores. (Psalm 103:10-11; Colossians 1:13-14; 2 Cor. 5:17)
6. Forgiving others is not an option; it is a step of obedience. (Col. 3:13-14; Matt 5:23-24)
7. Forgiveness does not mean the other was right, but forgiving provides freedom.
8. Forgiveness is not a feeling but an action.

No sin or guilt that may follow can be held against a believer. The penalty was paid by Christ on the Cross and righteousness was imputed to the believer. No person can reverse this divine privilege. So Rejoice Jesus paid it all.

Security Ministry

Greetings, we're asking you to help us with ensuring that proper security measures are being utilized when securing the church. We're asking that anyone remaining behind in the sanctuary after service is over, to please exit the building through any of the doors in the church office area. These doors will automatically lock and will allow our security personnel to concentrate on securing the front of the church. Your assistance will make our church that much more safer and secure.
