Faith That Pleases God

Heb. 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Faith That Pleases God is our new sermon series we launched for 2020. If we're going to seriously follow Jesus, we need faith that pleases God. Here's a recap from the first sermon of the series preached on Sunday, January 5, 2020.

When you have faith that pleases God:

1. You work toward what God expects. (v.1)

¹ Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2. You can see what God said. (v.3)

³ By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen.

3. You seek God because you want to please God. (v.6)

⁶ But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

3a. Seek God because it is required

"...without faith it is impossible to please Him..."

3b. Seek God because He is real

"...must believe He is..."

3c. Seek God because He rewards

"...He is a rewarder..."

3d. Seek God relentlessly

"...diligently seek Him"

4. You and God can handle anything! (v.33-40)

“True Bible faith is confident obedience to God’s Word in spite of circumstances and consequences.” -Warren Wiersbe

For the rest of the sermons in the series, we will look into the lives of the persons listed in Hebrews 11. We’re going to examine their stories in the Old Testament to get a bird’s eye view of their faith. Do you want to read ahead? Here are some texts for the next four sermons in the series:

- ⇒ Abel (Gen. 4:1-16)
- ⇒ Enoch (Gen. 5:18-24)
- ⇒ Noah (Gen. 5-9)
- ⇒ Abraham (Gen. 11:27-22)

Then, we will examine:

- ⇒ Sarah
- ⇒ Isaac
- ⇒ Jacob
- ⇒ Joseph
- ⇒ Moses
- ⇒ Joshua
- ⇒ Rahab
- ⇒ Gideon
- ⇒ Barak
- ⇒ Samson
- ⇒ Jephthae
- ⇒ David
- ⇒ Samuel
- ⇒ The Prophets

Let’s totally hear and heed this series of sermons so that our faith pleases God! Be encouraged and enjoy the journey!

Acts 2:42 – And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers..

Minister Arie Freeman, Minister Annie Lester, Deacon Jimmy Oglesby,
Deaconess Shirley Clark and Deacon Monroe Clark

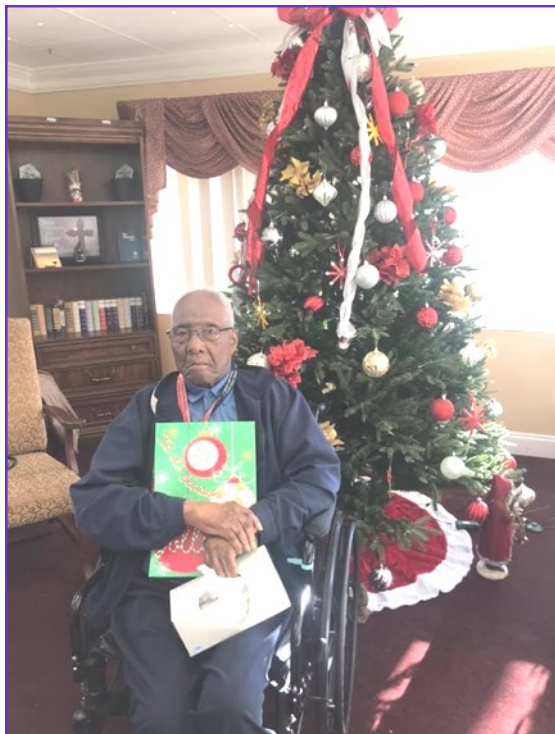

We always have a great time fellowshiping with our members and others at The Lodge and Elberta Nursing Home. The Communion Team, consisting of Deacon Monroe Clark, Deaconess Shirley Clark, Deacon Jimmy Oglesby, Deacon Curtis Jackson, Minister Annie Lester, Elder Milo Bradley, and Minister Arie Freeman administer communion every First Sunday. We have a Worship Service with singing, prayer and a sermonette at both locations. We return on Third Sundays and worship with them. Again singing, praying, and administrating God's Word. What a time, what a time when all God's people get together to sing, pray and share the Word of God. It is a joy spending time, sharing and hearing testimonies from the senior citizens who call this place home.

We recently lost our very own Brother George Hill at Elberta Nursing Home, however we picked up a sister from the Lodge under watch care. God is still in the blessing business. These Senior Citizens are a blessing as they enthusiastically worship and praise the Lord. What a fellowship what a joy divine leaning and standing on the Word of God. Continue to pray for our members - Sister Helen Doe and Sister Maggie Bradley as well as the others at both locations. Feel free to join in with us as we do the will of God. Just know that prayer changes things and prayer can make a difference.

~ Prison and Nursing Home Ministries ~
Fellowship at Cracker Barrel

Hebrews 10:25 – “Let us not give up the habit of meeting together, let us encourage one another all

As 2019 came to a close, we kicked off the next decade of 2020 with a Fellowship get together of the Nursing Home and Prison Ministries at Cracker Barrel for breakfast. A good time was had by all as we laughed, talked, and enjoyed each other’s company. Good food, Good time Good Conversation. I pray that each ministry will strive to continue the work God has prepared us for.

Members in attendance: Pastor Clarke, Pastor Dukes, Pastor Madison, Deacon and Deaconess Clark, Deacon Oglesby, Deacon Woodard, Mother Annie Johnson, Mother Mattie Howard, Sister Mary Austin, Minister Anderson, Minister Freeman, Minister and Mrs. Hardee, Minister Jones, Minister Lester, and Minister Thompson. We had a great time enjoying each other’s company.

Posing with the Pastor on a full stomach!

Enjoying breakfast and conversation.

~ Prison Ministry ~

Minister Arie Freeman, Jr.

Matthew 25:26, 40 – “I was in prison and you came and visited me ...”

We continue to praise the Lord for the awesome things He is doing in this ministry. We enjoyed another night of Praise and Worship at Dooly State Prison. Once we entered the facility an inmate approached us with an exuberant expression. He was being released after his second stint at Dooly. Minister Marie Anderson opened things up with high praise and greeting and leading us in prayer. The congregation was led in the singing “Oh Come All Ye faithful”. Sister Debbie Goodvine attended her first worship experience at Dooly and greeted the inmates and read the scripture. Minister Arie Freeman spoke Words of Encouragement reminding the inmates that they can find encouragement in the fact that “Jesus, The Word, became flesh and made His dwelling with us”. They were charged to hold on to HOPE they have in Jesus and to allow the love of God to engulf them and let His peace reassure them. There was singing by Union Grove Ministerial Team and Dooly State Voices of Praise. Dooly Chorus singing of “I Want You to Move” and praise set the atmosphere for the message delivered by Minister Annie Lester from Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 1:21-24 entitled “When Favor Finds You”. Minister Lester’s message highlighted the Christmas Story of the birth of Christ. After the message Minister Thompson gave a prayer of thanks which was scripture based. We ministered to 36 inmates and two gave a testimony of what and why they were thankful this holiday season. It is always a joy to meet and fellowship with the men at Dooly.

Members in attendance were Ministers Marie Anderson, Arie Freeman, Annie Lester, and Earnestine Thompson, Sister Debbie Goodvine, Sister Annie Grayson, and Mother Mattie Howard. God always provides us with what we need and He gets all the Glory for what we do. Continue to pray for the Ministry as we continue to spreading of God’s Word by fulfilling “The Great Commission”, of witnessing to the inmates.

THANK YOU for your continued support and donations. Five (5) boxes of supplies were delivered on December 30 for the inmates at Dooly State. Your thoughtfulness and generosity as always, is greatly appreciated. Our next worship will be Saturday, January 11 from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. May God continue to bless us as we share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Sister Wanda Verrett

It's 2020! Thank God we made it! What will I do differently this year? Forget about resolutions. Let's just take some concrete steps to make 2020 a more prosperous year.

- a. First, let's look at last year and see what financial decisions got us closer to our goals and which ones didn't. Repeat the ones that did and forget the ones that didn't.
- b. Still looking back at last year, how much did I save? Was it enough to cover any emergencies that came along? Was it enough to cover the vacations we went on? Was it enough to cover Christmas 2019 without charging? If not, make a little adjustment. Hopefully, you didn't go over too much.
- c. Go to Personnel or your Human Resources person, or your supervisor to make adjustments in your withholding for federal and state. If you got a large refund in 2019, you definitely need to change your withholding. The average refund is $3,129.00. Divide that by 12 months and you could have had an extra $260.00 per month in your pocket to pay down debt, save for Christmas, college funds, or more importantly your retirement.
- d. Start getting your records together for tax season. It will be on us in no time. Also, it is not too late to contribute to your 2019 retirement fund.
- e. Let's take a look at our credit card statements. Check out the interest rates on each one. If one is really high, and you are disciplined enough, consider rolling that high interest balance to one of your cards with a lower balance (check balance transfer fees) or one with zero interest. Put both cards away and don't charge on them until the balance transfer has been paid out.
- f. When you get your cards paid out, don't close the account. Simply put the card away or charge only enough each year to keep them active and not paying any or low annual fees.
- g. Start your 2020 Christmas shopping now. The after Christmas sales are still going on and you can pick up some great bargains. In addition to getting some great things for myself, I've already put away several gifts for others on my list. When you have as many grandchildren as we do, you have to pace yourself.
- h. Many of the financial experts on TV give the same advice as I do: Get out of debt and save more. What does that look like? If you have to charge, stay out of the store. Leave your credit cards at home to avoid temptation. We'll talk about saving next month.

~ Intercessory Prayer Team ~

The Intercessory Prayer Team held its December meeting/outing at Georgia Bob's. We enjoyed good food and fellowship as we closed out 2019 and set our hearts on the wonderful things that God has prepared for us individually and corporately in 2020!

~ FAITH ~

I'm sure we're all familiar with this song sung by Dottie Peoples:

He's an on time God, yes He is

Oh on time God, yes He is

He may not come when you want him

but He'll be there right on time

How many of us are so impatient that we want the Lord to answer our prayers in a "heartbeat". As we pray for such desires: a desired job, an improved marriage, better health, better finances, etc. we expect the Lord will answer our prayers right away. We might be guilty of throwing up our hands and wondering when will he answer our desires.

I'm sure we're all familiar with the story about Mary and Martha waiting for Jesus because their brother Lazarus is sick. He doesn't come right away and they are wondering why. As we know, Lazarus dies and Jesus later resurrects him. His delay teaches the sisters as well as others that he is so powerful that he can not only stop someone from dying, but also raise those from the dead. He wants the non-believers to see his power.

By waiting on God's timing we will learn how to persevere and never doubt him. We must trust him and realize nothing is impossible for our God.

God always hears your prayers, and just because he does not answer right away does not mean he doesn't hear you.

As I was talking to my brother, Rev. Powell, about this article, he made a profound comment, "If you don't have that waiting power you don't have any strength."

Although God does not answer us as soon as we want, he could be teaching us a lesson and he's waiting for us to believe in him. He will never leave us or forsake us. We must remember that all things work for the good according to God's purpose.

Isaiah 40:31

"But they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint."

We must never forget and know that even though he may not come when you call him, he'll be there just in time.
